To whom it may concern,

I have had the pleasure of both participating in sessions and workshops conducted by Indigo Training, and employing Indigo Training to implement strategies on my behalf.

At all times, I have found Rum and his staff to be incredibly professional, dedicated and committed to meeting our needs. Rum particularly is a pleasure to work with, and I feel confident that he will design and conduct exactly what has been asked for.

On top of this however, and perhaps most importantly, Rum has a unique ability to carry out workshops, training session and discussion groups with an enthusiasm and energy of which I am in awe of! Rum is able to relate to participants of all levels, encourage, challenge and stretch them, and to do all this while having fun.
